Dear dear Mr. Chapman

Send me all the Greek Copper Coins you have - in fine condition only - I have paid you six dollars for some good Copper Coins but I don't want to buy Copper Coins at high price unless I think they are beautiful to look at. beauty not rarity is what I want - You say you only have thirty pieces, I must have bought as many as that from you myself.

Sincerely Yours

M. D. L.

Dear Mr. Chapman.

I am delighted to see at any time fine specimens of Great Copper Coins. Nothing else pleases me so much. Since I have care for and good is too but perhaps to make a large collection of. I am for myself that you have seen me more Great Coins in the past

And some of my best have come from you. Send collection as soon as you wish for me to select from. Yours

M. Burke

Dear Mr. Chapman

You wrote me a week ago that you had some fine West Co. Cows and asked if I wanted to examine them.

I replied that I would like to see them have been approved as yet. Did I fulfil my letter
